Multidisciplinary Assessment

Patients referred to the Australian Craniofacial Unit are managed in a multidisciplinary fashion involving a large number of specialty services. The following chart gives an overview of some of the departments involved in the care of our patients.